

Generosity is a leading mark of God and disciples of Christ. Reflect on the 3 levels of Generosity Pastor Micah discussed from the story. How do these levels help you think about your own generosity towards the Lord? What experiences have you had with each of the levels and how did impact your view on giving and generosity?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

What lane of God's generosity highway are you in? Which level of generosity do you think you are currently at with the Lord and why? What steps can you take to grow to the next level of generosity? How do you want God to remember your generosity?

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read Nehemiah 5. What examples of greed do you see in this passage and why were they problematic for Nehemiah and God's people? How did Nehemiah lead the people out of greed and into generosity? What was Nehemiah's motivation throughout this chapter to be generous and lead the people to do the same?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Greed and materialism is a common issue in our world today. What are some modern examples you have seen where greed promotes injustice, selfishness and/or disobedience to God? In what ways or areas have you struggled with greed now or in the past? What motivated your heart to be greedy?
